LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

KEVINHYPE // EDITOR IN CHIEF

SUMMER IS IN SESSION!

The Summer Issue of Amped Asia is here! It's proving to be a super hot summer, and a lot of that is thanks to the sexy Asian models we got this season.

In this issue we have a nice new crop of models, including many that we've never shot before. For our cover we have the amazing Ashley Vee, one of the Bay Area's hottest girls. This is her second shoot for us, but this one really pushes the limits of what we can show in this magazine.

We also added new photos of Debbie Sath, who was featured in the last issue. Mizzimie is a cosplayer and Twitch streamer who has been gaining a lot of popularity as of late. Amy Luu came to us while we were shooting in Vegas and she's got TONS of potential. Nicky Park got shot by both me and Leo Trajano, and we're loving the shots. Last but not least, Miss Mackin is a hottie with a body (booty) and her pics will make you want to zoom in closer =)

Enough chattin, let's get to the photos.

Until next volume,

Debbie Sath is giving nerds everywhere a glimmer of hope! In fact, she strongly prefers to date the nerdiest guys! We got an amazing in-depth interview where you'll learn how to date her if you ever get the chance. Best of all guys, she's 100% single!

“I NEED TO FIND MYSELF
A PERMANENT
AMERICAN GUY.”

So now that you've moved to America permanently, how do you like it?

I honestly love it, it has been the best decision I have ever made in my life. Its been really hard being away from all my family and friends but i definitely don't regret it. I have only been here a few months and already I have had so many opportunites that have came my way including being on Amped Asia Magazine. :)

What's the worst and best part about the States?

I'll start by the best parts, for sure the entertainment industry, the people and networking. I moved here with the intention of pursuing my acting career and its definitely the best place to be for my career. Also I love the amount of vegan food that is easily accessible. I am actually not vegan but I do enjoy eating vegan food every now and again.

The worst part is the health care system lol... We get free health care in Australia. I'm not used to having to pay to get a simple Asthma Pump from the doctors or Chemist so I just get it sent over from Australia.

A woman with long dark hair is posing outdoors near a body of water. She is wearing a two-piece bikini with a dark green base and bright pink sections featuring a white and gold floral pattern. Her arms are raised behind her head, and she is smiling at the camera. The background is a blurred view of water and a rocky shoreline.

FEATURED MODEL

You're involved in a lot of projects. What are some cool projects you're doing?

I'm currently working with a few social media influencers, photographers, rappers, and comedians to make video content. I have so much fun shooting all of them. I'm still doing my shoots here and there and I also shoot for lingerie and bikini companies.

Are you single or taken?

I am currently single and loving life.

How is dating different in Australia than the United States?

Well I have to say that dating in the U.S is very different from dating in Australia. I actually really love how all the American guys are very chivalrous. I guess since I am staying here for good I need to find myself a permanent American guy lol.

Is looks or money more important when it comes to a guy?

Well I would say intelligence, I am a sucker for the geeks. The dorkier the better lol. But if I have to choose between looks or money it would be looks lol... I hope he would be very dorky looking, shorts, sweater and glasses is preferred.

What's your best dating advice for someone trying to date you?

I would say my love language is gifts! I love to be spoiled like a Princess and have everything done for me lol!

I also like someone who treats me really well and completely respects me. Those things are super important if you want to have a chance with me!

If you were on a date, what are 3 things you'd want a guy to be able to talk about?

I guess the first thing would be the ability to be able to articulate some sort of development -- whether its personal self-development, wealth, work or anything for that matter. Because I want to know that if I'm going to go on a date with this guy that he wants to progress in life.

The next thing would be knowledge about anything to do with his field of work. I just love listening to anything thats not in my field of my work because its different from what I'm doing and I find it refreshing.

The 3rd thing I would want him to talk about is the things that makes him happy and what he loves. I hope its all positive because nothing is more of a turn off then a guy who is a pessimist.

Is it more important for a guy to be good in bed or good at conversation?

Probably good in bed. I think conversation can be learned but in the bedroom if you suck, then you suck and nothing can help that. (Editor's note -- we disagree haha).

Also it would definitely affect the relationship if he was bad in bed.

JUST WEAR
DORKY GLASSES
AND BONUS
POINTS IF YOU'RE HOLDING A CALCULATOR

What aspects of a guy get your attention?

This is really easy for me. Just wear dorky glasses lol! Bonus points if you're holding a calculator.

What's something naughty you've done but you never got caught?

Stole my ex boyfriend's food and told him it was expired lol.

I AM CURRENTLY SINGLE AND LOVING LIFE

Plan out your ideal first date. Where would you go and what would you do?

My first ideal date would be me getting picked up and when I am in the car there will be KFC waiting for me in the seat. I can eat it while we are on the road going to Disney Land lol, and we would spend the whole day there. After that finish off with a massaga, facial, and chocolate. Yes I do love getting spoiled.

Which would be worse -- never having sex the rest of your life or never eating food the rest of your life (you would get nutrients through other means so you would still be alive)?

I think the thing that would be worse would be never eating food lol! I love trying new things and I feel like with food its all endless, but when it comes to sex there is only so many things you could do. You can get the same amount of pleasure when it comes to food too!

Where can we find you online?

COVER MODEL

COVER MODEL Q&A

It's been a while since we last saw you on Amped Asia. What is the latest happenings in your personal life?

In my personal life, everything is great. I have an amazing son who makes me laugh and is doing well in school. My parents and friends supports me in everything I do and that's all that really matters to me in my life.

Do you have any really cool projects coming up?

Yes. I've been planning to do this project for awhile now, but procrastination has really gotten the best of me. So my goal for 2018 was to finally do it and I am currently working on it at the moment. They say, "If you can't stop thinking about it, don't stop working for it. I've been dreaming about doing this project for the longest time and I can't wait to share with you guys what I have in store."

You're super good at putting out amazing pictures. What's your secret for looking / posing / presenting yourself so amazingly?

Aw, thank you. I try! HAHA. The secret is to take 100 pictures before you choose the right one to post. (LOL)

DON'T WORRY ABOUT THOSE WHO SPEAK BAD OF YOU. STAY IN YOUR LANE AND BE YOUR OWN COMPETITION.

What's the worst part about the modeling industry?

Fake models. When I say "fake" I mean a models who act sweet and gives you the biggest fakest smiles to your face and maybe even give you a back-handed compliment, but behind closed doors they would find any irrelevant reason to speak bad about you. But don't worry about them. The best thing to do is just stay in your own lane and be your own competition. I believe and wish we would all support each other as women and uplift one another.

What is something that very few people know about you?

You would think because my life revolves of being in front of the camera 24/7, I would be outgoing. But I don't think many know I get really camera shy when being recorded.

What are 3 things you're interested in or 3 of your hobbies?

My life consist of 3 things: my son Kaleb, Food and making money. So these are basically the 3 things I'm interested in, lol.

If you could plan a really cool night out, what would you be doing?

Any cool night out would consist of me stuffing my face, grab dessert and stuffing my face again. I really don't care. I just love food. To be honest with you, this is me on the daily.

As a model with a million+ followers, you're constantly getting attention from guys, whether its in the DM or in the streets. How do you pick the one(s) you would actually go on a date with?

First, I would never go on a date with anyone I meet on social media. I'm super traditional when

I LOVE A GUY
WHO CAN HUSTLE FOR HIMSELF. AS A
CAPRICORN I'M
MORE LIKELY TO DATE A BUSINESSMAN.

it comes to meeting and picking a potential guy to go on a date with. Secondly, ones who don't say, "Hey beautiful!" "Follow me on Instagram" "Are you single?" Guys! Please note that sending a d*ck pic will never work out for you, well at least if you're trying to date me LOL. I like a guy who can keep it simple and casual with me and be himself.

Are you currently single or taken?

I am currently single. I want to focus and put more energy into my future projects this year.

Out of these 2 shallow traits, what matters more? Money or looks?

Money, I love a guy who can hustle for himself.

Which of these 3 types of guys would you more likely date: the businessman, the rapper / artist, or the bodybuilder?

I'm a true believer of horoscopes and I, myself is a Capricorn so I would more likely date a businessman. MMMMM.

If a guy wanted to start talking to you, what kind of approach should he take?

I'm in between simple and extravagant. Either a guy can approach me casually with a good conversation and a good laugh or knows how to wine and dine his lady because you can't go wrong with good food and cocktails. Am I right?

What's your #1 dealbreaker when it comes to dating?

MY #1 DEALBREAKER OF 2018 when guys say, "Don't talk to me until you post me on your Instagram!"

If you look up "Things insecure immature people say" that would be on the list.

NEXT!

FRESH FACES

Are you single or taken?

Taken (;

Why is your partner is the perfect one for you?

We have so much fun. We can joke around so carelessly together. We just enjoy being together.

You would think since you spend so much time with somebody you wouldn't want them to be boring, we have our serious times.

But we make so much of the time we have together, we ride for each other through tough situations. At the end of the day I know he's there if I really need him.

What's the #1 problem with dating in this day and age?

I feel like people are starting to date at a younger age these days or people are getting married at an early age and already starting a family.

What's something you'd want your (current or future) man to wear to look his best? Get specific =)

To look his best? I think a man looks really sexy in something fitting but not too tight lol. Long fitted collar shirt, slim fitted pants, nice dress shoes. Or a fitted long sleeve or v-neck with fitted jeans. Or a nice tee, nice jeans with nice Nikes is also fine lol.

Simple and classy is cute.

Have you ever made the first move on a guy? If so tell us how it happened.

I have lol, he's been wanting to kiss me ever since we started talking. I knew he wanted to lol but I didn't kiss him until we started dating and gave him our first kiss about 6 months later haha. I was such a tease to him. c:

Personality is obviously the most important thing about a man, but what's the most important after that for you? Looks or money?

Ummmm that's hard. I have to be attracted to you so... looks. Money is 2nd because if we get serious I would want us to be stable if we're going to have future goals together.

If a guy were to approach you, what should he say to you?

First ask me how my day is and if I'm by myself. A guy who comes off respectful is way more attractive then a guy that is too flirtatious.

What aspects of a guy get your attention?

Eye contact -- a guy that stares way too much is a bit creepy. When a guy has eye contact when we talk it is sexy. I like it when a guy looks in your eyes and smile.

It's way more attractive then some creepy guy staring straight at my chest.

A guy that knows what he wants. Has ambitions and is motivated. If he is smart thats a big plus lol.

What's something naughty you've done but you never got caught?

Does skinny dipping count lol?

If you were on a date, what are 3 things you'd want a guy to be able to talk about?

- About himself, but not too much, A guy that opens up and isn't afraid to speak.

- What he is in to. Just getting to know him.

- and what he is attracted to in a girl (;

Is it more important for a guy to be good in bed or good at conversation?

Oh gosh aha, um honestly they have to be good at having a conversation. A guy will eventually get good in bed.

It'll be awkward if you couldn't talk to me, you probably wouldn't even make it to bed with me if you couldn't carry a simple conversation with me honestly.

Plan out your ideal first date. Where would you go and what would you do?

I love the outdoors and I love being adventurous. It'll be awesome to do something that involves nature! Dinner near the beach. Go paddle boarding somewhere beautiful. Zipline at a beautiful view.

Which would be worse -- never having sex the rest of your life or never eating food the rest of your life (you would get nutrients through other means so you would still be alive)?

I loooooovveeee food no way I can turn down food for the rest of my life, especially when I love trying all kinds of food.

I'm good at not having sex, there's other ways to fill my needs, if you know what I mean (;

If you went lesbian, which girl would you go for?

Lindsey Pelas, she's such a blonde bombshell. :D

A TEASE...

MIZZIMIE

If you've never gotten on Twitch, then what are you waiting for? Mizzimie is on there streaming and looking hot in every video. Mizzimie is a pro streamer as well as a cosplayer, and we love to support girls who are doing out of the box things and making it happen, big-time.

Instagram: @mizzimie
Photographer: @kevinhype

So you're a full-time Twitch streamer and cosplayer. How did you get into streaming?

I've known of Twitch for a while and started watching streams before I even decided I wanted to be a streamer. The idea was introduced to me by a few of my friends in the Smash community so I decided to try it out! I remember streaming League of Legends from my laptop (that would overheat) over an ironing board at my friends place and 3 years later I can say it was one of the best decisions I've made that changed my life. I wouldn't have made it this far without the help I have received from friends and my Twitch community.

What are your current favorite games?

I love playing Overwatch! I've been playing since beta and it's been a lot of fun so far. Learning how to use heroes and playing competitively is my favorite part of it. I recently finished Detroit: Become Human and I can honestly say the game is beautiful and makes you really think about what our future in AI technology could possibly become. But my all time favs are Tekken, Megaman Legends, Resident Evil and Pokemon!

You're a cosplayer as well. How did you get into that and what do you like about it?

Same with streaming, I've know about cosplay for a while and followed a few cosplayers that were already big since the beginning like Alodia, Yaya Han, VampyBitme and Kipi. I finally decided to try out cosplaying at my first anime convention AnimeExpo2012. It was the first time I got involved with the cosplay community and met most of my friends through cosplay. Crafting armor and weapons are my favorite thing about creating cosplay. I've always been an artistic person and cosplay has definitely helped me express that!

Twitch has made streaming into a full-time profession for many people, which is crazy. Can you tell us some tips for people wanting to get into it as a profession?

Twitch has made it easier for streamers to stream whatever they want (as long as it doesn't break TOS). If you want to start streaming then I suggest streaming something you really enjoy. Your audience will depend on what you stream and you never really know who is watching you so if you decide to stream games that you love then you will meet more people who love that game and same goes with other categories like cooking, singing, playing music, working out and even eating! Create a schedule and stick to it as much as possible. Even if you only have time to stream for an hour once a week, it will help your viewers know when to catch you! And lastly be yourself. Putting yourself out there can be scary but if you show your audience that you are genuine and love what you do then streaming could become your dream job.

How do you build your audience as a streamer / cosplayer?

Always be involved~! I personally enjoy it when I watch a stream and the streamer interacts with the chat. It feels more intimate and the connection between streamer and viewer becomes closer. I have viewers that became my friends in real life and it wouldn't be possible if I never streamed. Collaborations are also great~! Viewers love watching their favorite streamer with another of their favorite streamers. The chat becomes more interactive and it's more fun overall. The cosplay scene is no different. If you want more senpais to notice you then I suggest cosplaying more, collaborate and be more involved. Your audience will grow before you know it.

You love Tekken and cosplay often as Josie. How good are you at the game? Could you ever play at a pro level?

Tekken has been part of my life for 20 years. Tekken 2 was the first time I tried Tekken and we finally got Tekken 3 to play at our home console. Nina Williams is honestly my main character to play but when Josie Rizal was released I knew I HAD to learn her but overall my Nina is better than my Josie. I think I'm decent at the game. Ever since I started to take Tekken more seriously (going to arcades often, playing on my PSP and watching/playing online) I quickly realised I am not good enough to be Pro level at the game even if I practiced my butt off. My Pro Tekken dream will stay as a dream I guess LOL

What's your ethnicity and where are you from originally?

Philippines born and raised! So yeah I'm Filipino. My Family is from there too so if you need a tour guide or the hotspot list Imk. I grew up in the city and eventually moved here to LA. For retirement though I'll probably stay somewhere in Cali.

Currently are you single or taken?

I'm a dog mom so I'm taken by my dog.

What kind of guy do you usually go for? Are you into the nerdy, gamer type?

Hmmmmmmmmmmmmmm. I like guys that are nice, funny and self motivated. Looks are more like a bonus LOL.

14 QUICKIES

Are you single or taken?

Single :p

What's the #1 problem with dating in this day and age?

There's just too many who keep macking and don't keep it real like some of the older generation.

What's something you'd want your (current or future) man to wear to look his best? Get specific =)

Honestly, my future man could wear a button-up shirt/collared shirt and leather shoes or even if it's just a casual t shirt and khakis and I'll still think 'hey bae you lookin' like a snack'.

Have you ever made the first move on a guy? If so tell us how it happened.

Haha actually when I was like 17, there was this one time that I've asked this guy to be my valentine.

Personality is obviously the most important thing about a man, but what's the most important after that for you? Looks or money?

That's true. Personality is always the #1 for me, but it's important to have the drive and stability, as well as a man taking care of himself and having confidence because looks and money could change in the future.

So, I'll have to say personality is what makes the guy, so anything after that would be a plus.

If a guy were to approach you, what should he say to you?

He should say something funny.

What aspects of a guy get your attention?

Sometimes it's the vibe or something different that I feel about him, but if he's nice, funny, can hold a conversation, and can cook, then that'll for sure get my attention.

What's something naughty you've done but you never got caught?

I've been breaking rules ever since I was born, but I never get caught.

If you were on a date, what are 3 things you'd want a guy to be able to talk about?

I would want a guy to talk about his passions, his likes/dislikes, and his taste in music.

Is it more important for a guy to be good in bed or good at conversation?

I think it's important for someone who can actually hold a good conversation because everything else could be improved.

Plan out your ideal first date. Where would you go and what would you do?

For my ideal first date, I would want to go somewhere interesting and explore, have a picnic, etc., something other than the usual dinner and movie type of dates.

Which would be worse -- never having sex the rest of your life or never eating food the rest of your life (you would get nutrients through other means so you would still be alive)?

Welllll I am going to have to say food is life so it'd be worse if I never get to eat food for the rest of my life.

If you went lesbian, which girl would you go for?

Haha les be honest, I don't think I would go lesbian, but if I did, I think I would go for a fitness girl with a big booty.

Where can we find you online?

I have a page on Facebook, but I'm much more active on Instagram @miss.mackin. But I'm planning on a Youtube, so stay tuned! <3
