Welcome to this edition of SheWolf magazine. Firstly we would like to thank each and everyone who has supported this publication, from the beautiful and courageous models who grace the pages to the patrons for their purchases.

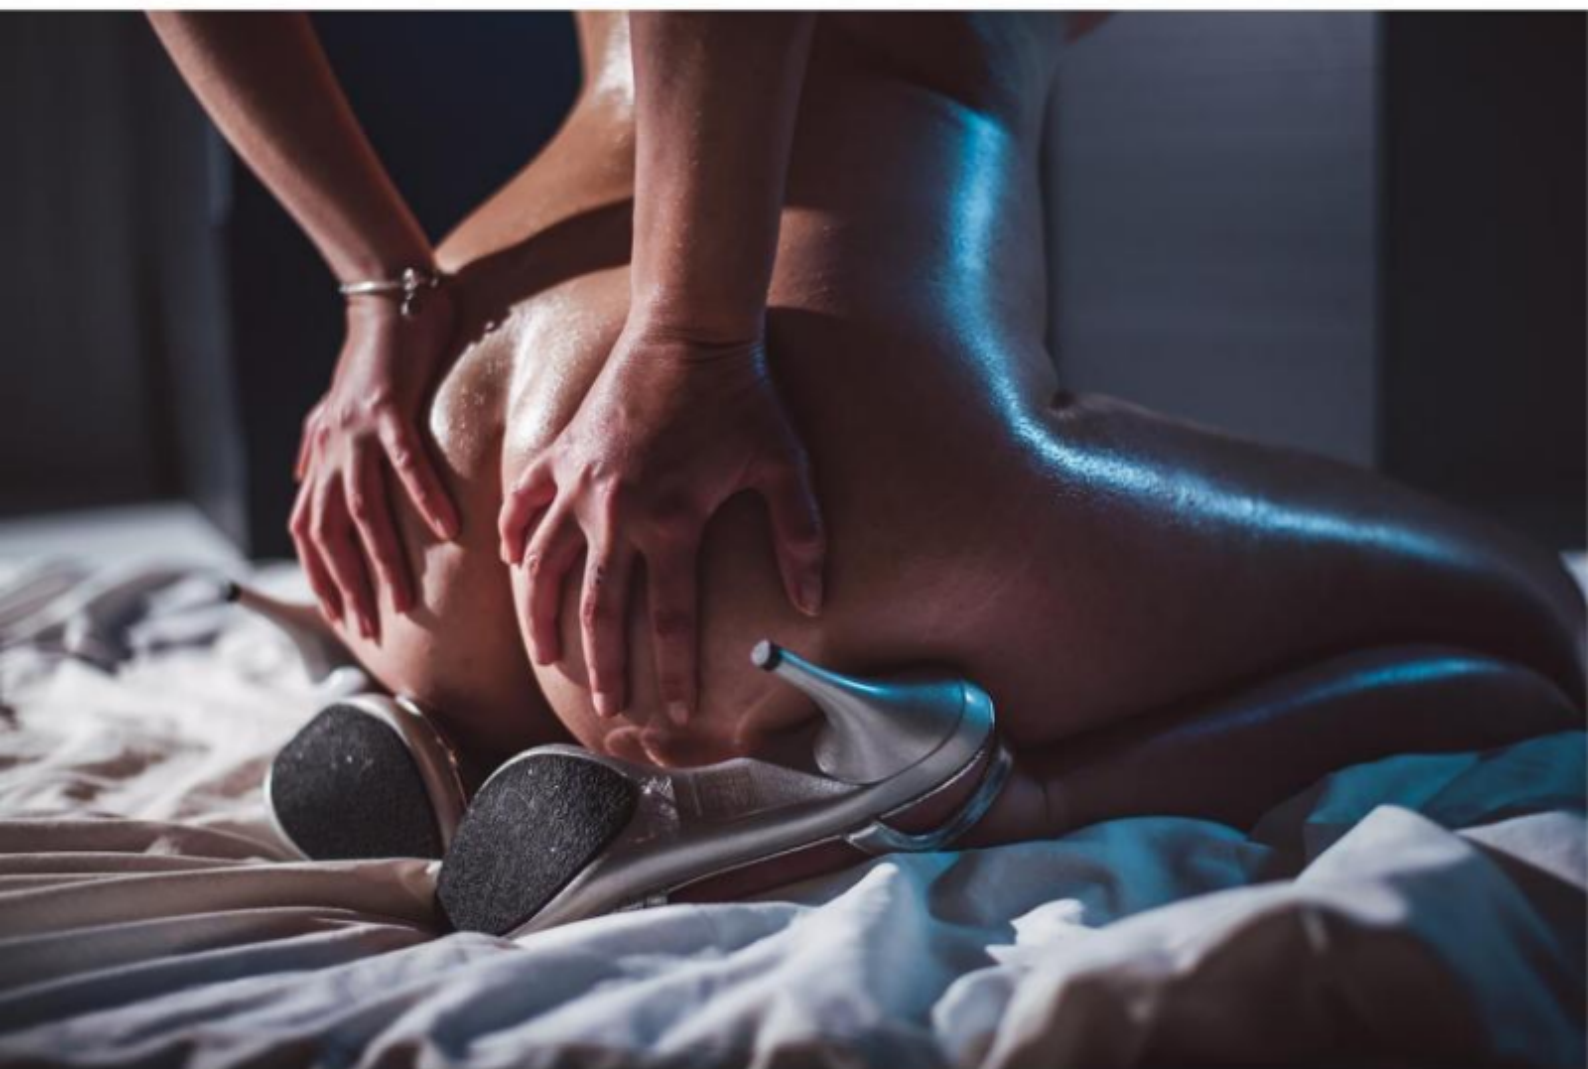

It's been a tough and rocky road, hence why the second edition has taken over 6 months to complete. Numerous setbacks and countless moments of almost quitting has led to this point.

Edition 589 has to this date received just over 55 000 page views, and 14 000 views.
